BALANCE SHEET OF THE NATION

WASHINGTON, June 30.—Secretary Shaw to-day gave out a statement showing the comparison between the estimates which he submitted to Congress in his last annual report and the actual receipts and disbursements during the fiscal year, from which it appears that the actual surplus is only about three-fourths of a million dollars less than the estimated surplus, when account is taken only of expenditures which were considered in submitting the estimate.

In the estimate submitted to Congress no account was taken of possible expenditures in securing the right of way for the isthmian canal, nor of the loan of $4,500,000 to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company. The estimate was based on the then existing laws. These were subsequently modified by the ratification of the reciprocity treaty with Cuba. The Secretary calls attention to the fact that the surplus would have been several millions in excess of his estimate but for the reciprocity arrangement with Cuba, which reduced the revenues from $6,000,000 to $8,000,000.

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1904, the total receipts were $511,154,745, as against the Secretary's estimate of $530,000,000. The expenditures were $527,929,071, against the estimate of $516,000,000. The expenditures are exclusive of $54,000,000 paid on account of the Panama canal and the loan to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

The available cash on June 30, 1904, amounts to $166,965,872. As compared with the fiscal year ended June 30, 1903, the figures show increase and decreases in receipts as follows: Customs, decrease, $21,823,325; internal revenue, increase, $2,302,440; miscellaneous increase, $1,802,014.

STOWAWAY HAD VERY HARD LUCK

Thomas Marshall, a few weeks ago, was an easy-going sailor aboard a British merchantman. At Sydney he made sea and got work on land. But in Australia his mind to give up the life of the tralia deserters from ships are arrested and compelled to return to their vessels. So Marshall decided to come to the United States. He managed to stow away on the Sonoma and keep out of sight until after the vessel had cleared from Auckland harbor. On arrival here the Inspector of Immigration would not let him land. So Marshall was taken to the police station and will be held there until he can be put aboard the Sierra and started back to the Colonies on Thursday. This may not end his troubles, for the law also deals with stowaways in Australia and if the ship he deserted from is there when the Sierra arrives he will have to resume his duties on board of her unless sent to jail for the offense.

THE COMMISSION CANCELED AS VOID

Senator Clarence L. Crabbe's commission as chairman of the Board of Fire Commissioners was cancelled yesterday by direction of Acting Governor Atkinson, as being contrary to Section 16 of the Organic Act, providing:

"That no member of the legislature shall, during the term for which he is elected, be appointed or elected to any office of the Territory of Hawaii."

No resignation was necessary, the commission being void. The appointment was made inadvertently by the Superintendent of Public Works, who was not at the time aware that the prohibition of the Organic Act was so strict as to exclude honorary offices. There is no salary attached to the office of Fire Commissioner, chairman or not, but the law as quoted above makes no difference for that fact.

Big Sugar Cargo Arrives.

WAIMEA NOTES

The Waimea school houses are being renovated, and a new roof now protects the main building. New windows will be added and the whole premises put in better repair.

Many people from Wahiawa, Elele, Makawili, Kekaha and Mana spent the day in Waimea on the Fourth and thoroughly enjoyed the day's celebration.

William Leviki, a young Hawaiian, was found dead on his porch on the early morning of the Fourth. The deceased was a carpenter and well known in the community. Heart failure was the cause of his sudden death.

Mr. A. Robinson and family are expected back from the Coast in a couple of weeks, after an absence of one year. Mr. W. W. Taylor has resigned from his position with Messrs. Gay & Robinson to accept a new one with the Hawaiian Sugar Company.

We are glad to learn that Rev. J. B. Hanaike is recovering from his recent severe illness.

Mr. K. W. Kinney wishes to state that he is not a candidate for the position of deputy sheriff of Koloa. Oscar Beaver also disclaims any ambition for the position.
